Call for Artists

Entry postmark
deadline:
Sept. 1, 2017

The Decatur Arts Alliance invites you to apply for booth space in the juried outdoor artists market area of our YEA! (Young Emerging Artists) event.

Celebrating its fourth year, this wildly popular one-day arts event is for students in grades K-12 who want to develop and sell their own creative work. This year, to accommodate more young artists, YEA! moves to the newly redesigned Harmony Park in Oakhurst village Sunday, Oct. 1 from 2 to 6 pm.

The Decatur Arts Alliance will set up a tent and provide a table and chairs for each artist/art group. A performance stage will be set up for student bands, musical groups or solo acts, grades K-12. A separate band audition form is available for interested students.

Fees

A non-refundable processing fee of $5 is required. The booth fee is $10 for a table in the tent.

Payment can be made two ways:

1. Online: Visit decaturartsalliance.org/events/yea-event. Please pay the processing fee by the application deadline and the booth fee upon acceptance.

2. Postal Service: Two checks – for $5 and $10 – must accompany the application.

Booth fee checks from artists not accepted will be returned.

No rain date and no refund of booth fees from accepted artists. Checks post-dated or returned unpaid by the bank will result in immediate disqualification.

Please note
the submission
deadline:
Sept. 1

Jury Process

- Please submit three images of your work to yea@decaturartsalliance.org by Sept. 1, 2017.
- Send only the number of images requested. We will not view more than the quantity requested. Only original artwork will be considered. No manufactured or “buy/sell” merchandise. If accepted, exhibitors must only show and sell work of the same type and style as demonstrated in the photos submitted with the entry application.
- All applications must be received by Sept. 1, 2017.
- NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED.
- Submissions will be juried and artists will be notified of the results via email by September 10, 2017.
