

2023 secret DOORS DECATUR

1. With over 7 acres of woods to explore,
There's plenty of space for this secret door.
Take a seat when you're ready to rest.
This door makes its home near a big bird nest!

Artist: Fishbone Art

2. With the luck of a clover, you'll find this wee door, tucked where there's burgers and music galore.
From the top o' the mornin' to late at night,
look for a spot with flags in sight!

Artist: Zach Consorti

Title: The Doors of Stone Henge

3. Search for the path with a bull made of brick;
looking for flowers won't do the trick.
This garden smells of french fries - not honey!
Peek around edges; you'll be right on the money.

Artist: Carol Harvey

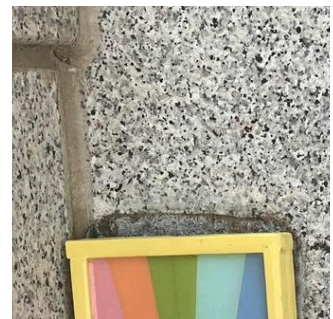

Title: The Faeries' Pub

4. Just steps away from the passing trains' rumble, you'll find this door - but be careful; don't stumble!
Tucked where there's often city events,
A stellar mural will give you a hint.

Artist: Julie Koon

Title: Sunshine Days Ahead

5. You don't need a ruler to find this location, where there's unique, funny gifts for all celebrations.
The store's recent rebrand's neither strange nor flighty,
as near this door, sales are mighty!

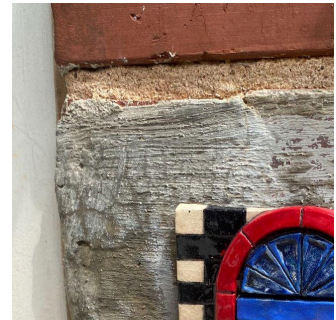

Artist: Nate Nardi

6. Find this door where city decisions are made.
Four very tall columns cast plenty of shade.
Not hidden from view, but you'll need to explore,
check all ways to enter to find this door.

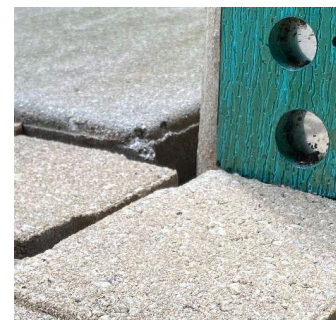

Artist: Carol Harvey

Title: Poncey & Leon on Patrol

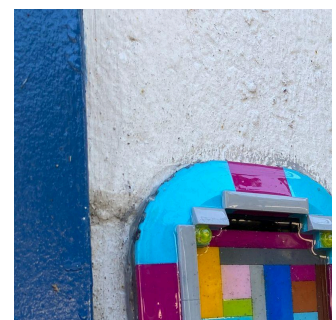

7. There are so many classes and activities here!
This door's not at the entrance, but it is very near.
With lots of bushes and places to look,
You've gone too far if you can check out a book.

Artist: Fishbone Art

8. At Decatur's new spot for spirits and art,
There's a door that's designed for children-at-heart.
Rum -don't walk- to reveal what's in store,
And whiskey who's first to find this door.

Artist: Fishbone Art

9. A big purple dancer will show the way to this store where imagination is always at play.
Tales of compassion and bravery, too,
remind young heroes of the good they can do.

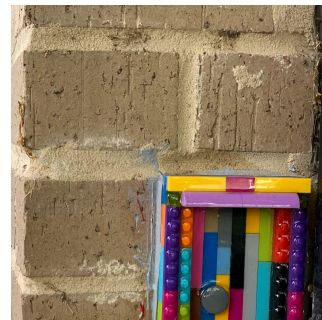

Artist: Muse Sawyer

Title: Welcome

10. A site for honoring our challenging history,
For progress (and play), this place can claim victory.
Look for the garden down the stairs.
Sonia says, "The door is right there!"

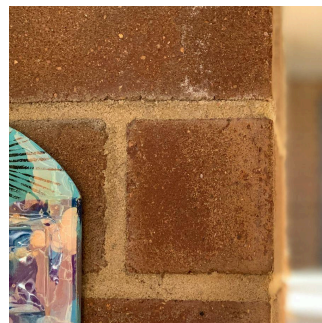

Artist: Fishbone Art

11. Do you hear splashing and dogs barking loudly?
The city just welcomed this new center proudly!
This door's tucked away when there's thunder and lightning,
but even in darkness, it still shines brightly!

Artist: Brea Te'Ann

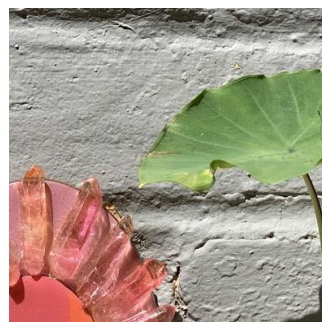

Title: Luna's Rays

12. This neighborhood spot's got an updated name, but your favorite coffee order can still be the same.
Keep searching along until the bricks turn to gray.
You'll have to look carefully; this door's tucked away.

Artist: Rose Zeimer

Title: New Day

13. In every season, there's so much to see!
An Ox house, vegetables, chickens, and bees.
The woods may be wild, but there's nothing to fear.
This door's got flowers and butterflies near.

Artist: Carol Harvey

Title: Galadriel's Hide-Away
